We're pleased to announce that Geoffrey Frankel has joined Harris Williams & Co. as a Managing Director and head of our restructuring advisory services. Geoff has nearly 20 years of experience advising companies and their stakeholders in mergers and acquisitions, financings, corporate reorganizations, debt and equity restructurings, and complex valuations.

Harris Williams & Co. understands that in today's extraordinary economic conditions, quality companies require creative strategic solutions to overcome unprecedented challenges and position themselves for long-term value creation. Our firm is committed to facing these challenges shoulder-to-shoulder with our clients, which is why we are pleased to welcome Geoff as the leader of our restructuring advisory services.

Geoff began his investment banking career with McDonald & Company, where he established and led the firm's restructuring advisory group. Prior to joining Harris Williams & Co., he led the restructuring advisory practice for National City Capital Markets in Cleveland and founded a boutique Midwestern investment banking and private equity firm focused on distressed investment and advisory opportunities. Prior to becoming an investment banker, Geoff began his career as a lawyer in the restructuring practice at Skadden where he advised clients on complex, national and international bankruptcy reorganizations and distressed M&A transactions.

Harris Williams & Co.'s professionals have extensive experience in complex, multi-party financial transactions including the execution of distressed and bankruptcy M&A transactions (including divestitures of non-core operations from distressed businesses), private placements of bridge or rescue capital, minority equity placements, refinancing or restructuring of existing debt and equity obligations, litigation support, and complex valuations. Regardless of their financial condition, however, each of our clients enjoys the benefits of our firm's long-standing reputation for representing only superior quality companies and people.

Harris Williams & Co. is one of the largest mergers and acquisitions advisory firms in the country focused exclusively on the middle market. Harris Williams & Co. represents private equity groups as well as publicly and privately held companies worldwide.
